

FISCAL NOTE

SB 1292 - HB 1861

January 24, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Revises law that limits liability of a landowner in regards to a person injured while hunting, fishing, trapping, hiking, camping or caving with permission of landowner or lessee of private property. Bill provides that if consideration received for use of land does not exceed the amount of annual property tax paid, the landowner or lessee of property would not be liable for injuries suffered by a person given permission to use the land. Currently liability is not limited when consideration is received for use of land for the purposes stated above.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:
